Dear Menarco Management,

I have just retrieved the J&T Express pouch (Tracking: JT0016829239147) addressed directly to Menarco Development Corporation (30th Floor).

It is now a matter of documented record that your own security personnel refused to accept a legal notice addressed to your own corporate headquarters. The courier logs explicitly state: "No one Answers the Phone"

As a Software MD with 50 years of commercial expertise, I note the following technical and legal failure:

1. You confirmed your tenancy and office location via email on May 3rd.
2. You invited "further questions" via that same email.
3. Yet, your physical infrastructure is set to summarily reject the delivery of those very questions.

Please provide immediate clarification as to how a registered Philippine corporation can be "reached" at its SEC-registered address if its own security barricades the entry of the official courier.

This evidence of Self-Obstruction will be filed as a Supplemental Annex to the National Privacy Commission (NPC) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to demonstrate a systemic failure of corporate transparency at Menarco Tower.

Sincerely,

Geoff Stow
